

Excerpt from A Treasury of Meditation: Or Suggestions as Aids to Those Who Desire to Live a Devout Life Prayer is - as every Christian believes - an indispensable exercise in the spiritual life. It is, in fact, the characteristic mark and employment of a religious mind. That longing of the soul for higher things, which is a feature in all human life, has led men to pray. The soul is by nature Christian, and all have, in one way or another, felt - What are men better than sheep or goats That nourish a blind life within the brain, If, knowing God, they lift not hands of prayer, Both for themselves and those who call them friend? Prayer is, then, for a Christian, a necessity. Prisoned here in the flesh, the soul, in its higher moments at any rate, beats against the bars of Time, as a bird against the bars of its cage, and longs to soar upward into higher worlds. By prayer it does this. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
